Columbia Manufacturing Announces a New Human Resources Manager

COLUMBIA, CT, -- April 9, 2024... Columbia Manufacturing, Inc. (CMI), a leading supplier of precision metal components for domestic and international turbine engines, is pleased to announce Amy Osorio has joined the company as the new Human Resources Manager.

Amy brings experience and enthusiasm to a key organizational role. Working closely with the CMI leadership team, she will manage all aspects of HR matters at the company's 90,000 sq. ft. production facility, with approximately 100 employees working across two shifts.

CMI's workforce is unique, supportive, and multigenerational. As the Company grows and continues to be awarded new contracts, Amy will promote a positive and productive work environment by developing and implementing HR strategies aligned with business objectives.

"We are excited to welcome Amy to our team," said Bob Nieszczezewski, CFO and VP of MRO. "Her expertise and leadership will be invaluable as we continue to grow and expand our first and second-shift operations."

"I am thrilled to join the team at CMI and bring my years of perspective and experience to our workforce as we continue to grow and expand our business! Our team is our biggest asset, and we will continue to develop and nurture our current workforce while recruiting new talent that shares our passion for success."

Prior to joining CMI, Amy was the HR Manager for Coburn Technologies, Inc., in South Windsor, Conn. She holds a B.S. degree in Agricultural and Resource Economics from the University of Connecticut.
